SAANEN

Swiss Chalet

Nestled on a rolling hillside between the villages of Saanen and Gstaad, Haus Gstaad houses an adventure lounge, restaurants, spacious spa and family area. The seven-storey, 136-room traditional chalet hotel features a Mountain Concierge, who advise guests on all on- and off-piste pursuits, from skiing in the winter to hiking and river rafting in the summer. Hästörs bed, mountain-facing balconies and a mini bar complete the chalet experience; a Finnish sauna is the ideal refuge after a long day at the slopes; while the lounge and bar The Livingroom boasts floor-to-ceiling windows for breathtaking views.

NEW YORK CITY

New Yorker

Offering unobstructed views of Manhattan in a neighbourhood packed with stylish bars and culinary options, The Williamsburg Hotel has floor-to-ceiling windows that look out to mesmerising views of downtown New York, Brooklyn and the East River. The grain and vegetable-focused menu at Harvey, headed by Chef Adam Leonit is a main draw, as is the rooftop pool featuring a replica water tower bar honouring the block's historic landmark, and its chic brick, glass and Corten steel exterior.

NICE

Naughty or Nice

Hôtel Negresco's Rivoli wing has been revamped with bold colour palettes in seven new bedrooms and attention to detail that includes polished bases of furniture to bring Mediterranean brightness to the room. Headed by Studio Marc Herrich and Nicolas Adnet, the art-focused hotel continues its legacy as a classic property with a contemporary finish.
